Clinton skips Tahoe, plays golf in Genoa

When word got out that former President Bill Clinton was going to play a round of golf at Edgewood Tahoe, he made other plays.

He and his entourage of Secret Service agents headed off the hill to Genoa Lakes Golf Club on July 12.

Clinton flew into Lake Tahoe Airport on July 11 as guests of the owners of the American Century Championship celebrity golf tournament. He will be giving a talk tonight at Harveys at an invitation only event.

American Century Investments and NBC Sports own the celebrity golf event that is played at Edgewood Tahoe.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report