

RAOK: From school mascot to restaurant diner

Pedro Kinner will soon be eating at Echo Restaurant inside Embassy Suites in South Lake Tahoe.

This is because he is Lake Tahoe News' latest Random Acts of Kindness winner and Echo donated a $25 gift certificate.

Every day people are doing Random Acts of Kindness, are the recipient of one or witness one. Lake Tahoe News is providing a forum for people to share those experiences. Local businesses are supplying the rewards.

It's free and easy to participate – and it's going on all month.

There is no limit to the number of times you can submit an entry. To do so, write about the Random Act of Kindness at the bottom of this story. Winners are picked randomly.
