

RAOK: Providing help because it was the right thing to do

Nancy Hussman's tale about how she and her husband helped an injured man until authorities arrived is the winning selection for today's Random Acts of Kindness award.

Winners are picked randomly each day. To be in the running, just write a comment below about a Random Act of Kindness you witnessed, or were part of by either being the recipient or the giver of the act.

Throughout January Lake Tahoe News is promoting Random Acts of Kindness. It doesn't have to be something major. Kindness comes in many forms.

Area businesses are donating the rewards. Nancy will be receiving a gift certificate to Sprouts.

For more details about Random Acts of Kindness and the few rules associated with it, check out this story.