Meeting about creating crime free housing areas

Douglas County Sheriff’s Office is hosting a one-hour introductory presentation about the Crime Free Multi-Housing Program on April 24 at 1pm.

This free training is being offered to all local California and Nevada multi-family housing, manufactured housing, vacation rental owners, managers, and property management companies.

The meeting is at 1625 8th St., Minden.

For more information, call (775) 782.9935.