

Recipe contest emphasizes using seasonal produce

Savor the Season is a recipe contest for Northern Nevada residents.

Western Nevada College Specialty Crop Institute and NevadaGrown – Home Means Delicious are sponsoring the monthly event.

Go online to learn about locally-grown, seasonal fruits, vegetables and other foods, and submit a favorite recipe utilizing one – or all – of the foods for a chance to win.

The campaign is designed to educate the community about the benefits of eating locally and seasonally.