Online poker revenues lagging

By Cy Ryan, Las Vegas Sun

CARSON CITY – Internet poker hasn’t proved so far to be the bonanza some had hoped for.

The first monthly report on online poker gaming win showed it exceeded only bingo compared to other casino games, slot machines and sports betting.

The state Gaming Control Board this week approved applications from six companies to extend their internet poker, licenses which were to expire if the companies did not start the games online in Nevada within six months.

Read the whole story