

Tahoe Tails – Adoptable Pets in South Lake Tahoe

Wally

Wally is a big fellow who's a little shy to begin with. He will need a little time to adjust to a new home, but once he knows all is well, he's up for head and shoulder rubs and lots of love.

He is curious and playful. He will benefit from exercise and a healthy feeding regimen. He has not been aggressive with other cats at the shelter. Although he was surrendered to the shelter with another cat named Nacho, they can be adopted separately.

Wally is neutered, microchipped, tested for heart worm, and vaccinated.

He is at the El Dorado County Animal Services shelter in Meyers, along with many other dogs and cats who are waiting for their new homes. Go online or the Tahoe animal shelter's Facebook page to see photos and descriptions of all pets at the shelter.
