

Virginia City opening museums for free

Virginia City museums will be free on the first Friday of the month starting in May.

This promotion will last through October, but will not include July.

The historic mining town has 17 museums.

Go online for more info.