

‘Idiot’s Delight’ coming to STHS theater

South Tahoe High School’s drama department will be putting on Robert E. Sherwood’s 1936 Pulitzer Prize winning drama “Idiot’s Delight”.

A cast of eccentric and international guests – countesses, arms dealers, showgirls, revolutionaries, charlatans and lovers – spend a fateful weekend in a resort hotel in the Italian Alps. While songs are sung and dances danced and loves rekindled, the dark clouds of World War II come rolling in.

Performances will be at South Tahoe High School’s TADA Theater May 16, 17, 22 and 23 at 7pm and May 18 at 2pm. Tickets $10 for adults, $5 for students and seniors.
