Fire quickly put out at Tahoe City eatery

A Tahoe City restaurant was closed for a few hours today when a fire started in a light socket.

The fire was reported at 1:23pm Aug. 6 at Rosie’s Cafe.

The building was evacuated. There were no injuries.

The restaurant expects to reopen later today.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report