Snippets about Lake Tahoe

• Ritz-Carlton, Lake Tahoe is hosting the Art of the Cocktail on Sept. 5 from 4-5pm. Participants will journey back to pre-Prohibition days when cocktails were the highlight and beer, wine and other beverages were not in fashion. This is part of the Autumn Food and Wine Festival. Tickets are $40.

• The Labor Day weekend outdoor art show has changed locations. It will be at South Tahoe Middle School on Aug. 30-Sept. 1, 10am-5pm. There are also art shows Aug. 7-10 at STMS, Aug. 15-17 at the American Legion in South Tahoe, and Aug. 22-24 at Round Hill Square.

• Tahoe Environmental Research Center has a new website.

• "Soils – Digging Up the Dirt on Soil" is an instructional video from the California Water Board about what people can do to change how stormwater leaves landscapes and how to be stewards of watersheds.

• Douglas County is looking for youth flag football players and adult coaches. Click here for more info.