Talk to focus on ski touring Greenland

Brennan Lagasse, local writer, skier, and adventure guide is well-known for his global adventures on snow and the popular “State of the Backcountry” blog on Unofficial Networks.

Lagasse has been seeking out adventures on snow for more than 20 years. He is also a backcountry guide with Points North Heli in Cordova, Alaska as well as Doug Stoup’s famous ice ax expeditions.

The Home Brew Series, presented by Alpenglow Sports and Tahoe Art Haus & Cinema, is designed to showcase local athletes who live regular lives and accomplish extraordinary feats in the mountains. The series is designed to be mellow, free, and community-centric for all ages and abilities.

Lagasse’s show is the second installment in a three-part series that runs once per month from November through January. Lagasse will take attendees to Sisimiut, Greenland, an expedition designed to help map ski terrain for proposed future experiences led by local Greenlanders and Ice Axe Expeditions.

While the Dec. 3, 7pm show is free, attendees are encouraged to arrive early for good seating. Tahoe Art Haus & Cinema will serve refreshments and participants are encouraged to remain after the show for additional festivities.

Tahoe Art Haus & Cinema is at 475 North Lake Blvd., Tahoe City.
