Amgen bike race looking for volunteers in Tahoe

The Amgen Tour of California Women’s Race at Lake Tahoe is seeking cycling aficionados to volunteer during the two stages, May 8-9.

The two Lake Tahoe stages cover 124 miles in two days. The start and finish line for both Tahoe stages are located at Heavenly Mountain Resort’s California Lodge.

Volunteer registration is now open for about 300 positions for the first stage and 200-250 for the second. Four to six hours are anticipated each day.

To register, go online. Registrants must be at least 18 or accompanied by an adult.

For more info, contact Mike Frye at mike@ltva.org or 775.588.5900, ext. 309.