Snippets about Lake Tahoe

• Barton’s infection preventionist, Vicki J. McKenna, is one of 5,000 professionals in the nation who has earned a CIC, a certification in infection control, credential through the Certification Board of Infection Control and Epidemiology.

• The recent storms have allowed Royal Gorge cross country ski area to reopen.

• Former South Lake Tahoe resident Bud Heng has published “Think & Grow Wealthy: Your Amazing Passage to Prosperity & Abundance”.

• Lake Tahoe South Shore Chamber of Commerce was recognized at the Western Association of Chamber Executives Conference for its accomplishments in political advocacy and communications.