Author to give talk at S. Tahoe Library

Friends of the South Lake Tahoe Library on Oct. 24 are hosting William Lindemann, local author of contemporary and historical fiction.

During the past 25 years he has researched, written and developed exhibits for art, history, and technology museums and state parks. In addition, he wrote and produced an award-winning historical short film, “Auto Tour of Lake Tahoe 1915”, which he will share at the talk.

Lindemann’s books, “Between The Waves”, “Timbre Coulee”, “Counterpoise”, “Down The Fall Line”, and “River’s End” are available as ebooks.

The free talk is at 1pm at the library, 1000 Rufus Allen Blvd.
