

State Parks set to begin prescribed fires

California State Parks is planning prescribed burning in Burton Creek State Park and Sugar Pine Point State Park this fall.

Prescribed burning may begin as soon as Oct. 13.

Goals of the prescribed fire program include restoration of native forest conditions, promotion of forest resilience, and reduction of hazardous fire fuels.

Burns will be conducted during weather conditions predicted to be favorable for smoke rise and dispersal.