

Snow impacting some school districts

Students at Zephyr Cove and Whittell High schools will be picked up at only the main bus stops today because of the snow.

Washoe County schools are on a two-hour delay.

No other schools in the basin are reporting impacts to the school day because of the snow.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report