OMG Fun Run registration open

OMG is part serious running, part casual walking and part crazy costume party.

The inaugural OMG (Old Meyers Grade) Fun Run will be May 22 from 10am-noon.

Register online for on of three categories – youth, costume-walking or competitive. Cost is $25 for adults and $10 for children under 12. Those who register before the race will receive an OMG T-shirt. Registration the day of the event is $30/$15; from 7:30-9:30am at the Grade.

Old Meyers Grade is located 0.1 miles up South Upper Truckee Road. The course gate-to-gate round trip is 2.6 miles

Prizes go to the first person to reach the top of the grade and for the most laps in each division. Participants who complete at least three laps will have their names posted online. There will be refreshments and music.

The OMG Fun Run is presented by the Meyers Community Foundation. Proceeds support and promote creative and sustainable projects, and community-enhancing events in Meyers.
