

Revenue declines at Stateline casinos

May was not a good month for Stateline casinos, which saw revenues drop 15.12 percent to $13.7 million compared to 2015.

The Gaming Control Board today said Nevada casinos won more than $958 million in May. This is 4.53 percent drop from a year ago.

Most of the state saw numbers decline.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report