

2 pedestrians hurt, cyclist in custody

Paramedics tend to a man and woman who were injured Aug. 27 in South Lake Tahoe. Photo/SLTFD

A South Lake Tahoe man was arrested Sunday after he allegedly ran into two pedestrians with his motorized bicycle.

The collision occurred about 7:25pm Aug. 27 at Highway 50 and Rufus Allen Boulevard.

Patrick Bryan Baker, 41, was arrested on felony charges of driving under the influence, hit and run causing injuries, and a misdemeanor obstruction charge.

The pedestrians, who were in a crosswalk, were taken to Barton Memorial Hospital.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report