

Sand Harbor drowning victim identified

The man who drowned last weekend at Sand Harbor has been identified as Jose Partida, 27, of Sparks.

The official cause of death was accidental drowning.

Partida was swimming around the a rocks in the late afternoon of July 29.

He was brought to shore but unable to be revived.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report