

Killings in Kings Beach ruled murder-suicide

The shooting Saturday in Kings Beach has been ruled a murder-suicide by Placer County sheriff's deputies.

"The manager showed up at the woman's room, they exchanged heated words, and he pulled a gun and shot her. The woman's boyfriend was present in the room, and as he ran to the bathroom window to escape, he was also shot at, but wasn't hit. A moment later, the suspect shot himself," investigators said.

The shootings occurred the afternoon of Nov. 4 at a motel on Trout Avenue.

The names of the people involved have not been released.
