Humor to be the subject of talk in Incline

The psychology of humor will be the topic of an April 26 talk in Incline Village.

From mockery (the Darwin awards) to sarcasm (National Sarcasm Society – like we need your support), comedy can be viewed as a diagnostic tool for the investigation of enduring questions about the human condition.

Kim Bateman, executive dean of the Tahoe-Truckee Campus of Sierra College, is known for her engaging and entertaining presenting style. Her research interests include organizational psychology, bereavement, and humor.

The program will begin at 6pm, with refreshments and no-host bar from 5:30-6pm at the Tahoe Environmental Research Center on the campus of Sierra Nevada College. Seating is open at 5:30pm to guests who have preregistered, open seating starts at 5:50pm.

Cost is $5.
