

Placerville teen wows stars on 'The Voice'

By Benjy Egel, Sacramento Bee

Placerville resident Jaclyn Lovey is barely old enough to drive, but she's already wowing music legends and audiences in Season 14 of the hit NBC show "The Voice."

In her blind audition for "The Voice," which aired Tuesday, judges Blake Shelton and Alicia Keys hit buttons signifying they wanted Lovey on their teams a minute into her rendition of Elvis Presley's "Can't Help Falling In Love."

Read the whole story