Snowboarder dies at Mammoth

By Reno Gazette-Journal

A Los Angeles-area woman died Saturday while snowboarding about 50 feet to 60 feet off the groomed trail on Mammoth Mountain, the Mono County Sheriff's Department reported.

Erica Crystal Patterson, 43, of Hidden Hills, Calif., was not out of bounds but was by herself in a steep slope skiing among the trees when she fell face first and suffocated in the snow, said sheriff's Lt. Rob Weber, the chief deputy coroner.

Snow advisory for Lake Tahoe

A winter weather advisory is in effect from 4am to 10pm Wednesday.

It's been snowing lightly off and on all day in the Lake Tahoe Basin. The National Weather Service expects heavier snow to move into the Tahoe Basin late tonight, with it becoming heavier during the daytime hours Wednesday.

More snow is falling and will fall this week at the Amacker ranch.
