

Heavenly execs work the line at Bread & Broth

Heavenly Mountain Resort's senior staff left the mountain and converged in the kitchen at Bread & Broth this week to serve more than 75 locals in need of a hot meal.

In addition to providing volunteers to cook, serve meals and clean dishes at St. Theresa's Grace Hall, Heavenly also donated $250 to sponsor the evening, with a promise from Blaise Carrig, COO at Heavenly and the evening's chief bottle washer, for another $500 to go toward new pots and pans.

Michael Allen,
from l - r,
Casey Blann,
Brandy
Thomson, Steve Turner, Diane
Weidinger,
Blaise Carrig,
Russ
Mortellaro,
Paul Pfotenhauer,
Les Marsh

Carrig, Michael Allen, Casey Blann, Brandy Thomson, Steve Turner, Russ Mortellaro, Paul Pfotenhauer and Les Marsh

brought an all hands on deck attitude and infectious enthusiasm to the job for the year's first Adopt a Day of Nourishment, according to Bread & Broth officials.

For more information about Bread & Broth and sponsorship availability, contact Evye Szanto at (530) 570.7890 or evyeszanto@gmail.com.

Downbeat at Homewood

Downbeat plays at Homewood on April 10 from noon-3pm.

Straight from Kingâ€™s Beach, Downbeat is known for its thick harmonies and booty-shaking grooves. Their sound is a melting pot of funk, soul and jazz guaranteed to keep skiers and riders in the groove long after the lifts close.

2Me at Homewood

2Me plays at Homewood ski report.

From Sacramento to Lake Tahoe to Arkansas, 2Me travels far and wide to share its â€œfolk & rollâ€ with excited audiences. 2Me has a unique acoustic sound and often invites other musicians to play along on instruments like washboards, kazoos, harps, you name it.

The Dirt Floor Band at Homewood

The Dirt Floor Band plays Homewood ski resort March 27 from noon-3pm.

Folk, country and rock intersect with five men who call themselves The Dirt Floor Band. You'll hear some of the basics like guitar and percussion, along with a mandolin, banjo and harmonica thrown in for good measure. They write most of their own music, but have also covered some familiar songs by the Talking Heads, Donovan, Old Crow Medicine Show, Ween, the Minutemen and Whiskeytown.

Subject to Change plays Homewood

Subject to Change plays at Homewood ski resort March 30 from noon-3pm.

The combination of a love for rock and funk has brought this group of four men together forming a jammin' Lake Tahoe crew. These passionate musicians exhibit their chemistry through jamming guitars, expressive vocals, and shredding keyboard rhythms that will inspire vibrations throughout the entire audience, leaving few in their seats by the end of the show.

Zebuel Early at Homewood

Zebuel Early at Homewood ski resort on March 9 from noon-3pm.

When Early isn't playing guitar with Lake Tahoe band Mama's Cookin', he can be found shredding solo. If you're looking for heavy soul, blues, funk, rock and even hip hop, then look no further. Early has a long history with music, having worked late nights in Memphis blues clubs and hosting his own R&B radio show in Colorado.

Kate Gaffney at Homewood

Singer, songwriter and guitar player Kate Gaffney at Homewood ski resort from noon-3pm on Feb. 13.

Lake Tahoe Concours d'Elegance

The 38th annual Lake Tahoe Concours d'Elegance is Father's Day weekend – June 18-20 – at the Sierra Boat Company in Carnelian Bay on Lake Tahoe's north shore.

In addition to the dozens of restored wooden boats from all makes, models, and years, the Marque Class for 2010 will be "Classic Glass" (up to 1964), and will consist of two subclasses: "Transitional Fiberglass," to include boats manufactured with wood hulls and fiberglass accessories such as fins, hard tops, or decking, and “Full Fiberglass,” boats manufactured primarily out of fiberglass.

Event details, downloadable images and tickets are available at www.laketahoeconcours.com, or by calling the show office at (530) 581.4700.

North Shore garden tour

Lake of the Sky’s 22nd annual garden tour is July 31 from 10am-4pm in Incline Village.

For more information, go to www.lake-of-the-sky.org.

Bahrke 2nd in World Cup moguls

Tahoe City’s Shannon Bahrke was second in the World Cup moguls at Whiteface Mountain, N.Y., on Thursday.

The U.S. women took the top four spots. Hannah Kearney was first, then Bahrke, Heather McPhie and Michelle Roark.

Michael Morse finished fifth behind winner Guilbaut Colas of France in the men’s event to move into contention for a spot on the U.S. team for the Vancouver Olympics.

The U.S. team will be officially announced Tuesday in Park City.