

The Dirt Floor Band at Homewood

The Dirt Floor Band plays Homewood ski resort March 27 from noon-3pm.

Folk, country and rock intersect with five men who call themselves The Dirt Floor Band. Youâ€™ll hear some of the basics like guitar and percussion, along with a mandolin, banjo and harmonica thrown in for good measure. They write most of their own music, but have also covered some familiar songs by the Talking Heads, Donovan, Old Crow Medicine Show, Ween, the Minutemen and Whiskeytown.

Subject to Change plays Homewood

Subject to Change plays at Homewood ski resort March 30 from noon-3pm.

The combination of a love for rock and funk has brought this group of four men together forming a jamminâ€™ Lake Tahoe crew. These passionate musicians exhibit their chemistry through jamming guitars, expressive vocals, and shredding keyboard rhythms that will inspire vibrations throughout the entire audience, leaving few in their seats by the end of the show.

Zebuel Early at Homewood

Zebuel Early at Homewood ski resort on March 9 from noon-3pm.

When Early isn't playing guitar with Lake Tahoe band Mama's Cookin', he can be found shredding solo. If you're looking for heavy soul, blues, funk, rock and even hip hop, then look no further. Early has a long history with music, having worked late nights in Memphis blues clubs and hosting his own R&B radio show in Colorado.

Kate Gaffney at Homewood

Singer, songwriter and guitar player Kate Gaffney at Homewood ski resort from noon-3pm on Feb. 13.

Lake Tahoe Concours d'Elegance

The 38th annual Lake Tahoe Concours d'Elegance is Father's Day weekend – June 18-20 – at the Sierra Boat Company in Carnelian Bay on Lake Tahoe's north shore.

In addition to the dozens of restored wooden boats from all makes, models, and years, the Marque Class for 2010 will be "Classic Glass" (up to 1964), and will consist of two subclasses: "Transitional Fiberglass," to include boats manufactured with wood hulls and fiberglass accessories such as fins, hard tops, or decking, and “Full Fiberglass,” boats manufactured primarily out of fiberglass.

Event details, downloadable images and tickets are available at www.laketahoeconcours.com, or by calling the show office at (530) 581.4700.
