THE MAIN DOOR PRIZE will be an all expense trip to Lake Tahoe

Friday- The Wagon Wheel new station wagon will pick up the winning couple at their home in Sacramento or vicinity any weekend at Friday noon, or thereafter, prior to May 15.

En route to Lake Tahoe on Highway 50 they will stop for lunch at Mack's Jumbo Drive-In, across the highway from the El Dorado County Fair Grounds. At Lake Tahoe they will immediately go to Joe Lamatrice's Playland Motel, where, if they wish, they may take a swim in Playland's heated pool. Upon arriving at the Lake, the couple will be loaned a movie camera by the Stateline Pharmacy and up to $10.00 worth of films, to use as they see fit while at the Lake. Dinner at the Wagon Wheel Sageroom. Dinner and drinks by courtesy of Harvey Gross. At this time they will be given at least $10.00 with which to try their luck on the gaming tables or Nevada's "One-Armed Bandits." When they wish to retire, they will be returned to Joe Lamatrice's Playland Motel for their deluxe room.

Saturday- Saturday morning, a continental breakfast at Playland, courtesy of Joe Lamatrice; later a real breakfast at Ski Run Hotel, courtesy of Tom Armstrong. Lunch at Davis' Coffee Shop in the Wagon Wheel Saloon, courtesy of Mr. Davis. Also on Saturday the winning couple are the guests of Mr. Joe Lamatrice, who will take them to Reno, if they wish. If they go to Reno, Harrah's Club will present them with $25.00 and will see that they receive something to eat while in Reno. If they return to the Lake in time, they may enjoy dinner Saturday night at the Sageroom of the Wagon Wheel. Saturday night also at Playland Motel; and the heated pool is available for their pleasure at all times. If the couple wish, they will be supplied with ski boots, skis and free pass on the local ski tows; also at Edelweiss chair lift.

Sunday- At their convenience, the couple will be returned to Sacramento prior to midnight Sunday. Meals Sunday the same as Saturday, except dinner. Dinner on way to Sacramento at Sportsman's Hall, near Pollock Pines, courtesy of Bob and Phyllis Dalmain, owners.

*** If winning couple desire to drive their own car, gasoline for the entire trip will be supplied by Harvey Gross of the Wagon Wheel Saloon.
